Order

No. 20-193-2001/ARSZ/Credit/4019

Read:- 1) This Office Registration No. RCS-Credit/12/Goa dated 25-03-1997.

2) This Office Showcause/Interim Order No. 20-193-2001/ARSZ/Credit/2444 dated 28-02-2006.

Whereas, the above showcause Notice dated 28-02-2006 was served upon eleven Managing Committee Members of St. Xavier Urban Co-op. Credit Society Ltd., Velim, Salcete-Goa, consequent upon its dormant (non-functioning) situation, without undertaking any action for its revival to commence with the business activities, which are stagnant considerably for a long time.

And whereas, the above Managing Committee was given the opportunity fixing the date of hearing on 24-03-2006, to give their say in person as well as to file any written statement thereof, related to the commissioning of the functioning of this society.

And whereas, on the above date of hearing six members attended out of which two members, viz. Shri Servulo Barros and Adv. Godfrey Norton, sought extension to file their replies and whereas, remaining four Managing Committee members opined that in view of the present state of affairs of this society, where there are no further chances of any revival, they are no more interested to continue with its affairs as their entire efforts put in for its sustenance has proved to be a futile exercise and hence, they did not object to put the aforesaid society under Liquidation.

And whereas, the above two objected members were given additional opportunities on 07-04-2006 and 27-04-2006 to give their say in the intetest of Principle of natural justice, which they have failed to adhere.

Now, therefore, in view of the foregoing facts, I am fully satisfied and convinced that the Managing Committee of the society does not have any material interest in the functioning of this society and is of the considered opinion that there is absolutely no objection to its being taken into Liquidation.

Therefore, I, A. K. Kamat, Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies, South Zone, Margao-Goa, by virtue of the powers vested in me under provisions of Section 102 of Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, as applied to the State of Goa, hereby confirm the Order mentioned at Sr. No. 2 above.

Further, under Section 103(1) of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, as applied to the State of Goa, read with Rule 86 of Co-operative Societies Rules, 1962 I hereby appoint Shri K. B. Dessai, Sr. Auditor, Co-operative Societies, South Zone, Margao-Goa, as a Liquidator of St. Xavier Urban Co-operative Credit Society Ltd., Velim, Salcete-Goa, with immediate effect.

3) Letter dated 28-12-2005, received from the Chief Promoter, Bansai Centre Co-op. Housing Society Ltd., Bansai, Kakoda-Goa.

By virtue of the powers vested in me under Section 102(1), of the Maharashtra Co-op. Societies Act, 1960 as applied to the State of Goa, the management of the aforesaid society was called upon to showcause as to why the said society should not be taken into Liquidation. However, the Chief Promoter vide letter dated 28-12-2005 has stated therein that the members are not showing any interest to fulfill the objectives for which the society was formed. Hence, having failed to adhere to the contents of the above showcause notice dated 15th December, 2005, I am fully satisfied and convinced that continuation of the registration of this society, will not serve any purpose but to liquidate the same. Therefore, I, A. K. Kamat, Asstt. Registrar of Co-op. Societies, South Zone, Margao-Goa, hereby confirm the order mentioned at Sr. No. 2, as per the provisions of the Maharashtra Co-op. M. H. No. 944,

M/s. 21st Century Wire Rods Limited,
Plot No. D-9/1,
Madkaim Industrial Estate,
Madkaim, Goa.

... Employer/Party II

Workmen/Party I - Absent

Employer/Party II - Represented by Adv. Shri P Chawdikar.

Panaji, dated: 16-6-2005.

AWARD

The Government of Goa by order dated 20-6-2005 bearing No. 28/12/2005-LAB/277 referred the following dispute for adjudication.

“Whether the action of the management of M/s. 21st Century Wire Rods Limited, Madkaim Industrial Estate, Madkaim-Goa, in terminating the services of Shri Sunil Kumar Singh Khuswa, Sr. Fitter, with effect from 12-6-2004 is legal and justified ?

If not, to what relief the workman is entitled ?”

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/16/2005 and registered A/D notices were issued to the parties requiring them to appear before this Court on 26-7-2005 at 10.30 a.m. Both the parties were duly served with the said registered A/D notice. The workman/Party I (for short “Workman”) appeared in person and Adv. L. V. Palekar appeared on behalf of the Employer/Party II (for short, “Employer”). As the Presiding Officer was on leave the case was adjourned to 23-8-05. On this date the workman remained absent. Subsequently, on account of superannuation of earlier Presiding Officer, the present case was taken up before this Court as per the order of appropriate Government dated 22-2-2006. Hence, once again the Workman was issued Registered A/D notice whereas the Employer was served by hand delivery informing that the case was fixed before this Court on 24-3-06 at 10.30 a. m. for appearance. However, the Registered A/D notice issued to the workman was returned back with postal remarks "Not known, return to sender". Hence, it was directed to issue another notice to the workman 'under certificate of posting' informing the next date of hearing which was fixed on 28-4-2006. However, once again the notice was returned back to this office with postal remark "Not known". Since the workman remained absent no claim statement was filed on 28-4-06 and the case was ordered to be proceeded ex-parte against the workman and the case was fixed for filing of the written statement if any, by the employer on 7-6-06. On this date Adv. P. Chaudiker, representing the employer, submitted that he does not want to file any written statement as the workman has not filed any claim statement and prayed that appropriate award be passed in the matter.

3. The reference of the dispute was made by the Government at the instance of the workman since he had challenged the termination of his services by the employer w.e.f. 12-6-2004 and contended that the termination is not legal and justified. It is the workman who had raised the industrial dispute and therefore the burden was on the workman to show that termination of his services w.e.f. 12-6-2004 was illegal, unjustified and bad in law. The Bombay High Court, Panaji Bench, in the case of V. N. S. Engg. Services v/s Industrial Tribunal, Goa, Daman and Diu and another, reported in FJR Vol. 71 at page 393 has held that the obligation to lead the evidence to establish an allegation made by a party is on the party making an allegation, the test being that he who does not lead evidence must fail. The Bombay High Court has further held that the provision of Rule 10-B of the Industrial Disputes Act which requires the party raising a dispute to file a statement of demands relating to the issues in the order of reference for adjudication within 15 days from the receipt of the order of reference and forward copies to the opposite party involved, clearly indicates that the party who raises the industrial dispute is bound to prove contention raised by him and Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court would be erring in placing the burden of proof on the other party to the dispute. In another case i.e. in the case of V. K. Raj Industries v/s Labour Court (I) and others reported in 1981 (29) FLR 194, the Allahabad High Court has held that the proceedings before the Industrial Court are judicial in nature even though the Indian Evidence Act is not applicable to the proceedings before the Industrial Court, but the principles underlying the said Act are applicable. The High Court has further held that it is well settled that if a party challenges the validity of an order, the burden lies on him to prove the illegality of the order and if no evidence is produced the party invoking the jurisdiction must fail. The High Court has also held that if the workman fails to appear or to file written statement or produce evidence, the dispute referred by the Government cannot be answered in favour of the workman and he will not be entitled to any relief.

4. In the present case the dispute was raised by the workman that the termination of his services by the employer w.e.f. 12-6-2004 is not legal and justified. The workman had remained present only on the first date of hearing i.e. on 26-7-05 and failed to appear on the next date which was given to him i.e. on 23-8-05. Subsequently the notices issued were also returned back unserved. Since it was at the instance of the workman that the reference of the dispute was made by the Government, the burden was on the workman to prove that the termination of his services by the employer is not legal and justified. The workman was given sufficient opportunity to appear before this Court and file his statement of claim but the workman did not appear and consequently no statement of claim was filed on his behalf. There is no material before me to hold that the termination of the services of the workman by the employer w.e.f., 12-6-2004 is not legal and justified. I, therefore, hold that the workman has failed to prove his case that the termination of his services by the employer w.e.f., 12-6-2004 is not legal and justified.

In the circumstances, I pass the following order.

ORDER

It is hereby held that the termination of services of the workman Shri Sunil Kumar Singh Khuswa, Sr. Fitter, by the management of M/s. 21st Century Wire Rods Limited, Madkaim Industrial Estate, Madkaim, Goa, is legal and justified and the workman is not entitled to any relief.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.
